HIGHLIGHTS OF VICE GOVERNOR UY'S LEGISLATION-AND-BEYOND LEADERSHIP

By: Iris P. Temperatura

From his assumption of office as the Head of Legislative Department on the noon of June 30, 2019 until now, "Legislation and Beyond" has been the centerpiece and anthem of Vice Governor Rey T. Uy's leadership. Aside from the legislative, quasi-judicial and oversight functions of the law-making body of the province, Vice Governor Uy initiated many laudable programs and projects for the Davaonon people during his three stellar years, especially in the turmoils of the pandemic Coronavirus Disease 2019 (CoViD-19).

One of the notable beyond-legislation ingenuities of Vice Governor Uy during the pandemic time is when he and all the Sangguniang Panlalawigan Members personally went out from their offices and visited the barangay frontliners detailed in every COVID-19 checkpoints in the entire province to donate packed grocery items, notwithstanding the perils of the pandemic. Also, in addressing the needs of the education sector during the new normal where the learning method shifted to online teaching and modular based instruction, Vice Governor Uy distributed a number of computer printers to public schools throughout the province as support and response to the province's Basic Education Learning Continuity Plan. Disinfectant sprays, liquid soaps, alcohols, quality face masks, face shields and other health essentials were also handed to the public-school teachers for more efficient and effective implementation of sanitary practices in maintaining the health safety protocols set by the Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF). Meanwhile, during the flooding brought about by Bagyong Odette in some of the flood-prone areas of the province, affected families received not only packs of relief goods but also healthy packed meal as well.

Moreover, Vice Governor Uy proactively initiated various programs and projects to accommodate needs of the Davaonon people in these trying times, as follows: (1) the implementation of the Community-Based Education for Economic Opportunities (CEE-O) Program partnered with Tagum City Council of Women Foundation, Inc., which is designed to provide an intensive training on basic bookkeeping, inventory tracking and finance management to both women and men as well as to empower and equip our beneficiaries with skills to thrive on their own as independent micro-enterprise; (2) the "Kusina Para sa Kabataan" Program, a feeding program which strategically addressed malnutrition among the children in the Province; (3) "Kasambayanihan" Program, a grassroot or community-based volunteer program of the Office of the President-National Anti-Poverty Commission (NAPC) as partner of the Office of the Vice Governor which helped achieve poverty reduction in the country by strengthening every sector's

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP: HOW TO TELL STORIES THROUGH DIFFERENT FRAMES AND STAGES

By: Ruda Caren P. Balabad

In consonance with the celebration of the 55th Araw ng Davao del Norte 2022, the Provincial Sports and Youth Development office together with the Sangguniang Kabataan Provincial Federation conducted a Photography Workshop to teach the Kabataang Dabaonon how to tell stories through different frames and stages. The said event was open to all aspiring creatives who have digital, single-lens reflex (SLRs) cameras, phone cameras, or any types of cameras ages 15-30 years old.

Twenty-two participants successfully culminated in the three-day event which happened last June 25-27, 2022 at the VIP Clubhouse, Provincial Sports and Tourism Complex. The interactive event taught the participants to get to know more about photography techniques from the pro resource speaker Mr. Lester Anthony C. Uy, the owner of Lester Uy Photography Film and Production.

Hon. Emerson Dave A. Silutan, LPT, DavNor's Sangguniang Kabataan Federation President and Ex-Officio Sangguniang Panlalawigan Member, expressed, as he gives the rationale of the workshop, that he is exultant to witness the initiative of the aspiring young photographers to pursue and polish their craft to capture. As a youth leader, he hopes to see more youth engage in youth-led initiatives programs for the interest of the ever-talented Dabaonon youth. 📷

BM JANNET TANONG-MABOLOC'S words of thanks and gratitude

By: Marianne Duco-Marcial

The recent national and local election has brought new changes to the lives of every aspiring candidate in the country. Some was able to make it and some did not, however, everyone has to move on and continue its humanitarian services even on their private lives.

The people had spoken and I am very much humbled for the One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Eighty-Two (135,082) people who voted for me and giving me a chance for third term as Board Member in the 2nd District of Davao del Norte. With these let me express my heartfelt thanks for the trust and confidence you have bestowed upon me.

In the months leading up to the election day, I have spoken face to face to my constituents, stepping on their doorsteps and able to hear clearly on their concerns. I did not promise anything, but just assured them that everything will be addressed to the very best of my humble capacity. Whether voted or not in this election, I informed them that I am very much dedicated to serve and work passionately for the people.

On my new colleagues in the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, I looked forward to working with them together regardless of our party affiliations, and as members of the legislative body, we shall unify in order to accomplish great things for the people of the province. I continue my drive to become the voice of the people, especially the women and children and build their future with compassion and sympathy.

Now is the time for us to be united so that we could rebuild our economy and ensure that everyone will receive the privilege they deserve. From this point of time, everyone's struggles are my struggle, your concerns are my concern and your hopes are mine too. We have a lot of work ahead of us and I am ready and exited to do my part. I want to be accessible and responsive to everyone as possible.

I humbly express my heartfelt thanks to the Tanong and Maboloc family and to my office staff and volunteers who helped and assist throughout the journey of my campaign. I could not have reach this far without your efforts. To my mentor, ninong, bestfriend, adviser, and my father in my political journey, former Board Member Roy J. Catalan, for being always there to support me. He may not be on my side this time but his virtues and teachings will be my guiding principle as I continue my advocacies as a public servant. I also give my sincerest thanks to the Honorable Congressman of the 2nd District of Davao del Norte, Honorable Alan R. Dujali, for the trust and confidence and for the inspiring and motivating words during the hardest times of the campaign.

To our newly elected Vice Governor De Carlo "Oyo" Uy, I am very much humbled to be working with you. I learned from you that age does not matter in leadership for what is important is the dedication, the passion and the willingness to perform efficiently as public servant.

Lastly, I thank the Almighty God for his guidance and for me giving me another chance and privilege to serve the people of Davao del Norte. Thank you and God bless everyone. 🙏
